Lee M. McLaughlin

Dedication

In the career of Lee M. McLaughlin, to whom we proudly dedicate this 1961 CALYX, we find exemplified one of the most noteworthy of the attributes of the "American Way"—growth and success.

Four years ago, in 1957, Lee McLaughlin, like the graduates of 1961, first became affiliated with Washington and Lee University. In that year, he assumed the position of head football coach of a team that had won but a single game in the previous three seasons. But Lee McLaughlin faced his task unflinchingly and undauntedly, knowing of the laborious job ahead of him.

His first season in 1957 ended in no victories and eight defeats. And the next year there was only one victory with one tie and seven losses—still an unauspicious record. But in 1959, the fruits of Lee McLaughlin's labors were finally beginning to blossom forth, for the Generals posted a 3-4-1 season that year. Then, in 1960, Lee McLaughlin accomplished what had before seemed virtually impossible -an undefeated season. In fact, this past season was the first time in 46 years that the Generals have been able to boast of such a record.

That Lee McLaughlin led the Generals to their first victorious season in many years is, of course, quite significant in itself. Yet a deeper and more enduring significance lies in the analogy that can be drawn from this achievement. Lee McLaughlin's career at W&L, which began four years ago, can be likened to that of the graduating senior, who also entered that college four years ago and who, too, has acquired through comparable victories and defeats a certain sense of growth and success. It is thus but fitting that we humbly dedicate this 1961 CALYX to W&L's head football coach—Lee M. McLaughlin.

> Only free peoples can hold their purpose and their honor steady to a common end and prefer the interests of mankind to any narrow interest of their own. Our object now is to vindicate the principles of peace and justice in the life of the world as against selfish and autocratic power and to set up among the really free and self-governed peoples of the world such a concert of purpose and of action as will henceforth insure the observance of those principles.

The President's Message

To the Class of 1961: I am pleased to have this opportunity of congratulating you on your attainments thus far. Your education and training at Washington and Lee have contributed significantly in preparing you for roles of responsibility and leadership. In the future greater success will be expected of you than most others because you have had the advantages of attending this University of great traditions. I am sure that you will remember each of you has an obligation to be wiser and more mature than those who have not shared your unique experiences.

You will have the continuing interest and support of all who serve your Alma Mater.

A true education depends upon freedom in the pursuit of truth. No group and no Government can properly prescribe precisely what should constitute the body of knowledge with which true education is concerned. The truth is found when men are free to pursue it. Genuine education is present only when the spring from which knowledge comes are pure. It is this belief in the freedom of mind, written into our fundamental law, and observed in our everyday dealings with the problems of life, that distinguishes us as a nation, the United States of America, above every Nation in the world.

The world has never had a good definition of the word liberty, and the American people, just now, are much in want of one. We all declare for liberty; but in using the same word we do not all mean the same thing. With some the word liberty may mean for each man to do as he pleases with himself, and the product of his labor; while with others the same word may mean for some men to do as they please with other men, and the product of other men's labor. Now are two, not only different, but incompatible things called by the same name—liberty. And it follows that each of the things is, by the respective parties, called by two different and incompatible names--liberty over tyranny.

—Abraham Lincoln

> These are the times that try men's souls: The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of his country; but he that stands it NOW, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman. Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph. What we obtain too cheap, we esteem too lightly. 'Tis dearness only that gives everything its value. Heaven knows how to set a proper price upon its goods; and it would be strange, indeed, if so celestial an article as FREEDOM, should not be highly rated.

Beta Theta Pi

ALPHA RHO CHAPTER

Founded as Rho chapter in 1856, the Beta Theta Pi chapter at Washington College had to be disbanded in 1861 because of the War Between the States. It was reactivated after the war and then again in 1921 when it became Alpha Rho. Since that time, diversity and excellence in a wide field of activities have made the Beta house one of the most active houses on the campus. This year was no exception as Betas assumed leading roles in academic, athletic, and social activities.

In student activities Ed Ladd was representative of the Beta house. He was elected to ODK, Who's Who, and Vice-President of the Commerce School. Pearce Hardwick was President of Openings Dances, and Grantham Couch was Historian of the Junior Class. Charles McCord was the Executive Committeeman from the Sophomore Class. Hunter Tracht and Ed Gay were the top officials of the International Relations Club, and Bill Boardman was one of the two top debaters.

As past editor of the CALYX, Ed Ladd was on the Publications Board. Brent Wells was editor of the organizations section of the CALYX and Pearce Hardwick was editor of the sports section. Bill Burke was assistant business editor of the Shenandoah. Also, Betas were active in the Student Service Society and the University Christian Association.

Scholastically, Jimmy Parker and Buck Ogilvie made the Honor Roll while Jim Haley, Bill Wilkinson, and Pearce Hardwick made the Dean's List.

Athletically, Betas were well represented in both intramural and varsity sports. For the second year in a row the Beta house took the intramural basketball title. Four Betas were captains of varsity teams. John Dinkle and Hunter Tracht were co-captains of the Lacrosse team. Maury Purnell and Jimmy Parker were co-captains of the swimming team. Tommy Goodwin led an excellent line as the football team went through its first undefeated season in fifty years. In addition, Charles McCord, Brent Wells, Carroll Downey, and Jim Haley were on the Soccer team. Mrs. Frances D. Martin served the Beta House of Housemother for the fourteenth straight year. Her influence and guidance have been some of the reasons for the excellent record which Betas have made at Washington and Lee.

PHI CHAPTER

Phi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta has become a leader on the Washington and Lee campus since 1896, the year of its founding here. Delta Tau Delta was started in 1859 at Bethany College in West Virginia, and is now one of the ten largest social fraternities in the nation.

The past year was another the Phi chapter can regard as most successful. Outstanding members of Delts were Ned Ames and John Towler. Ned was editor-inchief of THE CALYX and a member of Who's Who. John is president of the newly reorganized Troubadour Theatre and Deputy Battle Group Commander in ROTC, the second highest rank in the corps. Steve Suttle provided leadership as quarterback of the football team, and served as house president and secretary of the junior class. Dave Montgomery was elected secretary of the sophomore class and to membership in SWMSFC and the Student Service Society.

Ken Beall, besides being house social chairman, was managing editor of the Southern Collegian. George Honts was managing editor of the Ring-tum-Phi, secretary of the Assimilation Committee and assistant managing editor of the CALYX. Warren Welsh was president of Pi Sigma Alpha, honorary political science fraternity, and Ned Ames was elected to membership in that group. Ashley Wiltshire served as secretary of the Christian Council and president of the Baptist Student Union. Senior law student Phyz Lemmon was assistant head dorm counselor and vice-chairman of the Young Republican Club.

In sports the Delts maintained their leadership. Last year for the second consecutive time, the house won the over-all intramural-intercollegiate trophy. Individual trophies for first place in intramural wrestling, swimming, and in intercollegiate football were captured by the Delts. Charlie Gummey was honored as last year's most outstanding freshman athlete, while twenty-nine Delts earned 24 varsity letters, and 14 frosh numerals.

The Delts not only played well, they led well. Ned Hobbs captains the '61 baseball team, and Jim Hickey, the track team. Terry Fohs was co-captain of the winning Generals and selected to the Little All-American football team.

The men of Phi wish to welcome Mrs. George Chaney as their new housemother. Mrs. Chaney has proved herself to be a gracious hostess as well as good friend. Dean Farrar is the chapter advisor.

WASHINGTON AND LEE CHAPTER

This year the Washington and Lee chapter of Delta Upsilon celebrates its thirtieth anniversary. The DU spirit of brotherhood and endeavor has made our chapter one of the leading fraternities at W&L.

This spirit was shown by many varied activities in which DU's were found. Hugo Hoogenboom was editor of the Southern Collegian. Hugo was ably assisted by Bill Young, who was associate editor and photography editor of the Collegian. Junior Dave Fraser was a member of the "13" Club and Pi Alpha Nu, honorary sophomore society. DU chose Graham Fulton, Dave Fraser, Dave Beale, Lewis Noe, and Bill Young as its representatives in the Cotillion Club. Jim Cone, in addition to being Vice-President of the house, was President of the Graham-Lee Literary Society and chairman of the chemistry seminar committee. John Martin, a Dean's List student, was Secretary of the Interfraternity Council, and House Manager for the chapter. Jim Stott was a member of the Student Library Committee.

In the creative field, Herb Sapp and Frost Jackson were in the Glee Club. Jim Stott was engineer for Kaleidascope and Jazz Echoes radio programs. Paul Gilbert was a staff announcer for Home Edition.

DU was well represented in intercollegiate sports. Joe Hess, John McCoy, Joe Howson, Phil McCaleb, and Graham Fulton played varsity football. Hess and Fulton had already lettered in football. Jim Starkey, Wick Hollingshead, and Harry Preston lettered in varsity soccer. Jim was also a letterman in swimming. Phil Macon and Fulton participated in varsity wrestling. Dave Beale played varsity basketball. Under the able direction of Steve Degenhardt, our intramural manager, DU placed high in track and swimming competition.

The DU social season got off to a good start with the annual pledge party, where the "Jivers" furnished the music. Openings dances were highlighted by the "Tams" on Friday night and Saturday afternoon. The Christmas House Party was the outstanding social event of the year. The "Chevies" provided the entertainment.

Through the efforts of Jerry Gordon, our President, Jim Cone, our Vice-President; and Jim Smith, social chairman, our thirtieth anniversary was a year of accomplishment and satisfaction.

ALPHA CHAPTER

The Kappa Alpha Order was founded in 1865 at Washington and Lee. Guided by the ideals and inspiration of Robert E. Lee, four men, sitting around a table in what is now Robinson Hall, created the "mother" chapter of the Order. Since that time the Kappa Alpha Order has grown and expanded until there are now over 80 active chapters in the United States. Here at Washington and Lee was the beginning of Kappa Alpha Order, which for thousands is now a way of life.

This year has been quite a significant one in the history of Alpha Chapter. With the help of the Kappa Alpha Order, Alpha purchased the "Reid White House" for future use as a chapter house. This purchase has proved to be beneficial and satisfactory in every way. Alpha now boasts one of the most attractive houses here at W&L.

As usual the members of Alpha Chapter have proved themselves leaders in all phases of campus life. KA's are prominent in athletics, scholastics, and extracurricular activities. Nathan Simpson, Kent Frazier, and Ed Croft are members of the Executive Committee of the Student Body. The highest student office in the school went to Kent Frazier on his election to the office of President of the Student Body. Nathan Simpson is editor of the Friday edition of The Ring-Tum Phi and is the battle group commander of ROTC. Carter Fox is president of the senior class, and Bill Ide is vice-president of the junior class. Carter Fox, Bill Ide, and John Mullin are members of the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee, and both Fox and Mullin are members of the IFC.

In athletics, Alpha is represented by Bob Funkhouser, football co-captain, and Skipper Smith in football. On the wrestling team are Sandy Mersereau, captain; Kent Frazier, Herb Smith, Sam Bloch, Mike Brumby, Bill Snyder, and Robin Norfleet. Bret Thackston and Bill Ide are on the basketball team. Nathan Simpson, Bob Funkhouser, and Tom Rains are on the track team. Brothers Frazier, Simpson, and Funkhouser are in the Varsity Club.

Socially, the House enjoyed itself as usual, with Roy Goodwin as social chairman. Raleigh Archer is president of Pi Alpha Nu, and the House is also represented in the Mongolian Minks, White Friars, and "13" Club. Brothers Harrell, Frazier, Funkhouser, and Simpson are in Who's Who.

Alpha is indebted to its faculty adviser, Dr. E. W. Spencer, and to its housemother, Mrs. J. M. Lewis, who have done a great deal in its behalf.

Mu Chapter of Kappa Sigma concluded its 87th year on the Washington and Lee campus with brothers again assuming outstanding roles of leadership and activity on the campus.

President of the house, Skip Ruhle, was chief engineer for Radio Washington and Lee and Home Edition. Brother Wynn Kintz was a senior editor on Home Edition and business manager of the Shenandoah. Freshman Tommy Goar was an associate producer of Radio Washington and Lee.

Vice-President of the house, Harvey Allen, was executive director of Radio Washington and Lee, vice-president of Sigma Delta Chi, secretary-treasurer of Pi Sigma Alpha, and was features editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Serving with Harvey on the Ring-tum Phi were Steve Guild, sports editor, Tom Jordan, copy editor, and Wynn Kintz, columnist.

In the Law School, Bill Miller returned from a Fulbright Scholarship in Germany and served as vice-president of Pi Sigma Alpha, in addition to being a Phi Beta Kappa.

In campus politics, Bill Johnston was chairman of the Independent Party. In ROTC, Clayton Bryan was company commander of the Gaines Guard and was a member of Scabbard and Blade, as was Harvey Allen.

Taking an active part in the Glee Club were Rick Breard, Dunlop Ecker, Tom Jordan, Warren Hughes, and John Dean.

In athletics, Dunlop Ecker was on the varsity soccer team, Al Curran and Lou Jones ran cross-country, and Robin Dunlap was on the varsity swimming team. Reid Dennis was on the freshman football team.

Socially, Kappa Sigma's annual Black and White Ball was the most outstanding of several very lively and successful parties. The chapter also entertained parents and alumni on separate occasions. This year, Kappa Sigma's nominee, Miss Betsy Moore of Hollins College, was chosen the 1960 Homecoming Queen.

DIPLOMATS

Lambda Chi Alpha now one of the nation's largest fraternities, was founded at Boston University in 1909. Gamma Phi was started at Washington and Lee 39 years ago, and the present house was built in 1935.

Having attained a scholastic average of 1.664 during the spring semester of 1960, Lambda Chi again won the campus scholarship cup.

Andy Leonard participated actively in the Troubadour's dramatic productions for the second year, while Ray Kidwell also helped in several plays. Bill Petty and John Dixon were in the Glee Club, and Bob Holland, Al Eckes, Bob Mottley, Bruce Chosney, John Dixon, and Dave Barr participated in key posts in the student radio programs.

Gamma Phi also participated in varsity athletics. Varsity rifle team members were Jim Austin, Jim McKenna, Steve Hancock, and Bruce Roberson. Jay Jacot ran cross-country. Led by manager Bob Holland, Lambda Chi fielded strong teams in all intramural sports.

Social activities were another highlight of the year with the climax coming at the annual Crescent Queen Ball in the spring.

Other administrative house officers were: pledge trainer, Jin Austin; rush chairman, Bob Holland; ritualist, Dave Haslett; social chairman, John Ambrose; and IFC representtive, Andy Leonard.

VIRGINIA ZETA CHAPTER

Virginia Zeta of Phi Delta Theta was established at Washington and Lee University in 1887, thirty-nine years after Phi Delta Theta was founded at Oxford, Ohio. The present house was built in 1929 with the assistance of Earl S. Mattingly, secretary of the Board of Trustees and Treasurer of the University.

The members of Virginia Zeta have participated in all phases of campus life, and Phi Delta Theta is proud of its part in campus activities. Bill McWilliams, a member of Omicron Delta Kappa and "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," was President of the Commerce School Fraternity and Secretary of the Student Body. John Farmer, a member of Sigma and the "13" Club, served as President of the University Party. Charlie Commander was President of the Junior Class and served as our Rush Chairman last fall.

Last year in athletics the Phi Delts for the second successive time won the intercollegiate athletic trophy for most varsity participation. This year, John Lee played on the football team. Dave Knight, co-captain of the soccer team, was a member of the all-South squad. Steve Stull and Ed Meyers, a member of Sigma Delta Psi, were on the swimming team. Dave Callaway and Meyers participated in varsity track, while George Chandler and Park Gilmore were outstanding players for the baseball team. Knight and Stull played on the lacrosse team. Bill McWilliams was outstanding on the tennis team, and Chuck Vance, a freshman letterman, played on the golf team.

Under the social chairman, John Lee, Virginia Zeta enjoyed such highlights as a formal houseparty in the winter, the Spring Hawaiian house party, and outings to Goshen and Twin Falls.

Virginia Zeta wishes to express gratitude to its housemother, Mrs. Henry Eichelberger, and its faculty advisor, Dr. Harvey Wheeler, for the aid and assistance which they have given this past year.

Phi Epsilon Pi

DELTA CHAPTER

Delta Chapter of Phi Epsilon Pi has been active at Washington and Lee for the past 42 years. During this time, Phi Ep has contributed to all areas of student activities.

The 1960-61 year was another banner one for us. We won the scholarship trophy, turned in some surprising upsets during intramural competition, and launched our own "New Frontier."

Arnold Masinter's "University Enterprises" escaped the national economic recession, much to our amazement. Trakers Chernay and Schwartz wielded the medicinal scalpel against the pro-socialized medicine forces of Verlin and Fischel. Eddie Brown was to be seen dizzingly pausing over house finances in the wee hours of the morning. Jim Applebaum mixed paint as Fancy Dress veep and psychoanalyzed Henry IV in the winter Troubadour offering. Prez Cowles became a breeder of rare canines and the entire fraternity took notes. Spud Slater, our confessor, attempted (with little success) to soundproof his room. By Spring, Frater Elias was seen digging around the sinkhole for fossils while Frater Herman was digging for some new wheels.

Our housemother, Mrs. W. C. Flournoy, was with us again to guide, understand, and perhaps restrain us at times.

We managed to find time off from being overly bookish to enjoy several lively parties. Frater Goller, by custom, provided the entertainment.

The year of the stormy winter was both quiet and loud, studious and festive, active and restrained. We saw many plans come to fruition, while "new and better" ideas took their places.

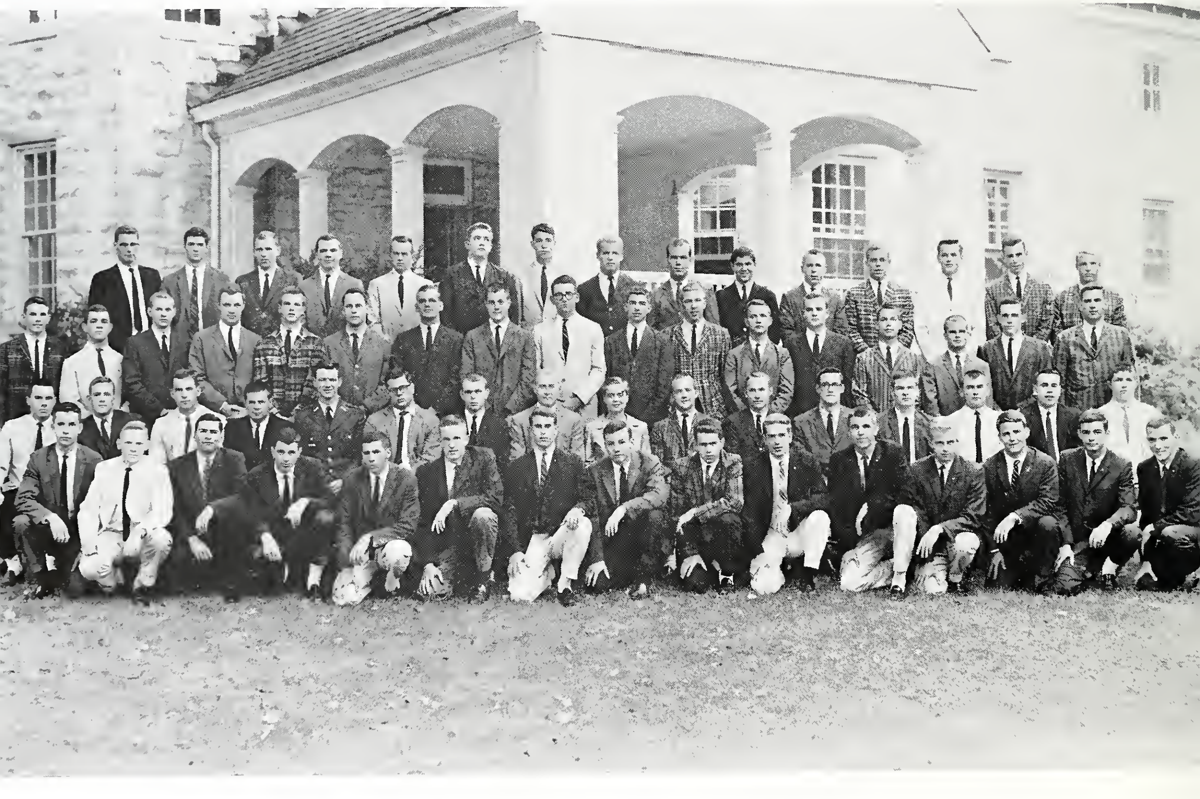
ZETA DEUTERON CHAPTER



First Row: Browning, McCeney, Gardner, Volpe, McDowell, Martin, Kirkley, Shubert, Clark, Tompkins, Clarke, Van Dyke, Bright, Belser, Smith. Second Row: Corbett, Bradford, Gordon, Wertheimer, Bowie, Budd, Rhinesmith, Partington, Mrs. S. Phi Gamma Delta was founded over a century ago in 1848, at Washington and Jefferson College. Since then, the Fraternity has expanded, until it now has 87 chapters located at the leading colleges and universities in the United States and Canada, boasting a combined membership of over 60,000. Zeta Deuteron was established at Washington and Lee in 1868, and since then it has continued to advance and strengthen the ideals for which Phi Gamma Delta stands.

In its 93 years at W&L, Zeta Deuteron has maintained a distinguished record of participation in campus activities. This year, Don Partington was elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Ray Robrecht was the Head Dormitory Counselor, being the third Fiji in succession to have this honor. Ray was aided by Don Rhinesmith, Steve Thompson, and Steve Rutledge. Don Partington served as president of both the Assimilation Committee and the Glee Club. Besides Don, there were 17 other Phi Gam members of the Glee Club. Partington, Rhinesmith, and Rutledge were members of the Student Service Society.

The Phi Gams were very active during Homecoming Weekend, winning both the Spirit and Homecoming Decoration awards. The Phi Gam intramural program was ably handled by Pete MacMurtrie, and as a result, the Fijis ranked 5th on campus in intramurals during the fall semester.

The Phi Gam social calendar was quite full, as the Fijis enjoyed their annual Champagne Party and their Fiji Island Weekend. As an added feature, Don Partington was President of Fancy Dress—making, this one of the biggest weekends of the year.

The Virginia Beta chapter of Phi Kappa Psi is the oldest fraternity at Washington and Lee, being founded in 1855, and it is third oldest of the 61 national chapters of Phi Psi. This fall saw 15 new men pledged to Virginia Beta chapter. This made Phi Psi one of the largest fraternity chapters at Washington and Lee.

The chapter is well represented in all phases of campus life. Among the prominent leaders in Washington and Lee's extracurricular activities are: Jim Vann, Senior Representative on the Executive Committee, president of the Washington and Lee Dance Board, president of the Executive Board of the Concert Guild, member of "13" and the Liberty Hall Society; Bill McCardell, business manager of the Southern Collegian, and member of the Publications Board; Elwin Law, president of Scabbard and Blade. Vann, Jim Russ, George Van Sciver, Pete Agelasto, and Charlie Hart are members of the Student Service Society.

Representing Washington and Lee in the field of sports, Phi Psi was equally prominent. Junior Jim Russ was a standout as first-string halfback on the football team, which also included Wayne Bradshaw and Charles Lane. Frank Smith was co-captain of the soccer team; Drew Danko was captain of the wrestling team. On the lacrosse team were stars Bart Mitchell and Ray Miller. Clark Valentiner played number two position on the tennis team. Charlie Hart and Mike Harris contributed efforts to the successful season of the swimming team.

Scholastically, the Virginia Beta chapter rose from eleventh to fifth among fraternities; the pledge class ranked second among the class of '64.

Once again, Phi Psi enjoyed a successful social year, with Ray Miller doing an excellent job as social chairman. The Christmas party, at which the Phi Psi Sweetheart, Miss Kitty Ann Reed, was crowned, the informal parties on dance weekends, and spring parties at Goshen Pass highlighted the social season.

Included in the physical improvements made during the year were the painting of the house, the addition of new shrubbery, and a new furnace. A patio is in the planning stage.

Certainly, too much praise cannot be given to our gracious housemother, Mrs. Carroll D. Evans, who completed her eleventh year with Virginia Beta.

ALPHA ALPHA CHAPTER

Phi Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1850. The Alpha Alpha Chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma was established on the Washington and Lee campus in 1894. Since its beginning this chapter has had a constant record of outstanding leadership in the many phases of campus activity.

This year Phi Kappa Sigma, under the guidance of its faculty advisor, Dr. Desha, House Mother, Alice Cogbill, and President, Jon Peterson, continued its tradition of leadership.

Last spring Charlie McCormick was given the high honor of being named Chairman of the Mock Democratic Convention. Bob Sykes, Lewis Nelson, and Owen Wise were appointed State Chairmen. It was through the efforts of Bob Sykes that Miss America was able to appear at the Convention.

In sports Phi Kaps captured the intramural bowling trophy, and again ranked close to the top in the final intramural standings. Sam Channell, George Chapman, Jim Mell, and Chris Larsen played Varsity Soccer. Jeff Lasher made the Virginia all-state rifle team. Bruce McDonald ran Varsity Cross-Country and Tom Edwards lettered in Varsity Track. Ralph Wiegandt and Dave Spencer were on the Wrestling Team.

In addition, Phi Kaps exhibited leadership in other campus activities. Tom Edwards was elected President of the Sophomore Class and voted outstanding Freshman. Ham Emory holds the office of Sophomore Class Historian. A large number of brothers are members of the Glee Club, among whom Dave Spencer, Sam Channell, Tom Edwards, and Chuck Campbell are officers. Clarence Renshaw is Senior Editor; Jon Peterson, Chief Engineer; and Bob Sykes announcer on Tuesday Evening Home Edition. The House was also represented by brothers in such organizations as Graham-Lee Society, International Relations Club, Dance Board, Phi Eta Sigma, Ring-tum Phi, and the honorary societies, "13" Club, Mongolian Minks, PAN, and White Friars.

As usual the Phi Kaps enjoyed a successful year of social activities. In addition to several house parties and Dance Set Parties, we held our traditional Christmas Party for underprivileged children of Lexington, with the help of Henry Bliley, Chuck Campbell, and Rick Marshall.

PI CHAPTER

During the early spring of 1868, Pi Kappa Alpha was found at the University of Virginia. Since that time, the fraternity has expanded into a national organization of over 130 chapters. The Pi Chapter was started on the Washington and Lee campus in 1892.

The members of Pi have continued their long standing record of excellence in all phases of life at the University. Bill Outman was elected President of Spring Dances, was Sports Editor for the Ring-tum Phi, and serves as dorm counselor. Cy Painter is treasurer of the IFC, and along with senior John Powell, is a member of A.E.D., honorary pre-medical fraternity. Tim Ireland, freshman law student, holds the O.D.K. key and last year was honored in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Both Ireland and Jerry Wilbourn were also dorm counsellors. Steve Tomasek was announcer for the University Radio's "Home Edition," while Dave Bevans worked on the CALYX staff.

Academically the house stood above the all-men's average; one quarter of its members made the Dean's List.

Pi Chapter was also very well represented in sports this year, both on the varsity level and in intramurals. Tiff Tiffany and Dan Blain were members of the varsity football squad as were Ed Dickson and Fox Urquhart on the frosh team. Ken Kowalski was again a standout in varsity basketball, while Steve Cook held down his place on the wrestling team for the third straight year. Kowalski also threw the javelin and John Trible threw the shot-put for the track team. Record-holder Elliot Maynard led W&L's varsity swimmers to the completion of another excellent season, and sophomore Charlie Stevenson participated also. In intramurals, PiKA had last year's intramural softball champions, this year's tennis champions, and a high-calibre touch football team.

Socially this past year has been especially successful. Members ranged beyond Goshen Pass to the Painters' summer house, conveniently isolated, where several memorable all-nighters were held. Dick Wright's house in Washington, D.C., has also been a home away from home for partying PiKA's.

ΟΥΔΕΝ ΔΙΑΣΠΑΣΕΙ ΗΜΑΣ

It is indeed fitting to extend a word of welcome to the new housemother, Mrs. Roane, whose home is in Jacksonville, Florida. Already she has displayed an amazing vitality in whatever she does, as well as a keen interest in different aspects of fraternity life. She has truly earned the respect of every Brother in the Fraternity.

In athletics this year Pi Kappa Phi has established a worthy record. Having won fourth place in intramural competition last year, part of which resulted from capturing the Sigma Delta Psi Award, the Fraternity has a mark on which to improve. Already the House has achieved success in intramural swimming by taking third place. Johnson captured the 100-yard butterfly, defeating his closest opponent by 10 seconds, while Houghton won the diving. Kimbell joined both of these men to help take second in the medley relay.

Aside from success in swimming, the Fraternity has many of its members in Varsity sports. In cross-country, Holt Merchant, a Pi Kap senior, was captain this fall, while Duffey, Farrar, and Garretson gave the team necessary depth. Duffey has been elected cross-country captain for next year. In football, Paul Van Avery and Jim Horton played line for the freshman team.

Rifle is equally represented by Pi Kaps. Roger Holden, a senior, captains the squad, which includes Brinton, Van Avery, and Park also Pi Kaps. Looking ahead, the House can appreciate the basketball ability of Rut Currie, who has a place on the freshman team, as well as the golfing of Ron Stewart, who played Junior Varsity last year; Ron shoots consistently in the 70's.

Aside from sports, the House has a new scholastic record. One of the Brothers, James Neale Hardin, is on a Fulbright Scholarship in Germany this year. Bill Fidler and Russ Harner have been admitted to the pre-med honorary fraternity, while Fidler and Niemeyer are members of the Freshman Honor Socity. The House has steadily raised its scholarship and is now in eighth place out of 18.

In extracurricular activities the House has spread its interest in many directions. In Glee Club are Fidler, Jordan, Young, Ivey, Iacone, and Booth. The school band is under the direction of Mike Herndon, a Pi Kap junior. Several of the brothers are interested in radio and debating. Kevy, Couch, Breede, and Lynn are on Home Edition.

Thus the House contains many diversified personalities, each with different interests, but all of which are united to the Brotherhood.

VIRGINIA SIGMA CHAPTER

The Virginia Sigma Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded in 1867, just 11 years after the national fraternity was founded at the University of Alabama. In its 93 years, the local chapter has strived to achieve all-round excellence in the fields of social, athletic, academic, and extracurricular activities.

During the 1960-61 school year, members of Virginia Sigma held many important posts on campus. Warren Goodwyn served as the Executive Committeeman from the senior law class and was also president of ODK. Serving on the Executive Committee with Goodwyn were Bill Buice and Rosie Page. In addition, Ned Olds served as the vice-president of the senior class.

Over the past several years, SAE has taken pride in her leadership in the field of publications. This year the editor of the Tuesday edition of the Ring-tum Phi was Rosie Page, while Huntley Biggs was the business manager of both editions of the paper.

Many SAE's figured prominently in the school's athletic program. Nine SAE's saw a great deal of action on the football field, including one of the tri-captains, Courtney Mauzy. Robin Wood and Tommy Keesee also were assets to this year's team. In addition, Henry Sackett was one of the co-captains of the freshman football team. In basketball, Bip Fauber, in his sophomore year, was one of the Generals' stars. Freshman John Baker won the school tennis championship. Ned Olds and Bob Bridewell played on the varsity golf team, while four SAE's played varsity baseball.

The Chapter also enjoyed a very full year socially. Football weekends always found a party at the SAE house. Traditional parties such as the Christmas House Party, and the Pajama Party were better than ever. The coming of spring made the many trips to Goshen Pass and Twin Falls enjoyable.

The chapter is indebted to its housemother, Mrs. Felde Wagner. The interest and help of faculty advisors, Dr. Jay Cook and Dr. James Starling, and of William Washburn and Dean Frank J. Gilliam, has also been greatly appreciated.

In hoc signo vinces

During its 94 years at Washington and Lee, Zeta Chapter of Sigma Chi has strived to attain excellence in every phase of college life: academically, extracurricularly, socially, and athletically.

Starting an active year on campus for Sigma Chi, Henry Harrell, a member of ODK and Phi Eta Sigma, was elected Vice-President of the student body at Washington and Lee. Bob Doenges was elected vice-president of the Inter-Fratrnity Council. John Refo, along with Doenges and Harrell worked actively in SWMSFC. John Morrison and Harrell were honored by their selection to Who's Who.

Sigma Chi has representatives in athletics with Butch Kroos on the swimming team, Sandy Ross on the rifle team, John French on the cross-country and wrestling teams, Dick Holladay and George Priggen on the cross-country and track teams, and Ruge DeVan on the tennis team.

In publications, Peter Stelling, George Priggen, and Bob Kennedy were on the editorial staff of The Ring-tum Phi, and Fred Baker wrote for the Southern Collegian. Jon Montague, Pete Pierce, and Jim LeBus participated in the Cotillion Club. Sigs Billy Martin, Henry Harrell, and Hardie Karrh sang in the Sazaracs, while Mark Gee and Bob Aylin sang in the Glee Club. John Morrison and Darracott Vaughan, Hardie Karrh, Bob Doenges, and Buddy Mower were members of Sigma, Pi Alpha Nu, and "13" Club respectively.

Sigma Chi continued to lead the Washington and Lee social whirl with such functions as the Monte Carlo Party, the Sweetheart Ball, and the Spring House party.

Sigma Chi's success would not be complete without the cooperation and help of Mrs. Estell H. Rice, housemother, and Dr. Kenneth F. Stevens, faculty advisor.

Sigma Nu, founded at Virginia Military Institute in 1869, is one of the largest national collegiate fraternities in the United States, having chapters in all but three of the 50 states. The Lambda chapter has been on the W&L campus since 1882.

Sigma Nu is outstanding in all phases of campus life. Among its more outstanding members are Al Broaddus, President of Finals Dances; Henry Holland, Secretary of the Fraternity House Managers' Association, and Dave Peters, member of the Sazeracs. In addition, Dave Streetman sang in the Glee Club as did West Ostergren, who was secretary, and John Dunnell was personnel manager of the Troubadours. Pete Straub, a senior in ROTC, was second in command of the cadet corps.

In athletics, Sigma Nu was well represented, too. Dave Tharp and Bill Willes lettered in varsity football and Wes Ostergren lettered in varsity wrestling. Jack Neal played freshman football while Tom Green, a Freshman, played varsity soccer. The golf team was captained by John Vardaman. Sigma Nu also participated in intramurals, and excelled in table tennis and basketball.

Socially, Sigma Nu had a successful year. The spring house party given in honor of Al Broaddus before Finals Dances and the annual White Rose Ball, also in the spring, were quite successful.

Sigma Nu recognizes cooperation and unity as being the basic factors for its widespread participation in campus activities. Because of the help of its housemother, Mrs. C. A. Spence, who has been with us 15 years, much of this success was possible.

Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded on a national basis at the University of Richmond in 1901. While only half as old as most national fraternities, Sigma Phi Epsilon has risen to the position of the second largest fraternity in the country. Our chapter, Virginia Epsilon, was first chartered at Washington and Lee in 1906 and was reactivated last year after leaving the W&L campus during World War II.

Since our inception we have maintained a pace and position worthy of our Sig Ep heritage. Led by President Clinton Anderson, Sig Eps played prominent roles in many campus activities. Anderson served as a Freshman Camp counselor, alternate dormitory counselor, head varsity track manager, and Historian of the Senior Class. Palmer Pardington, inducted into Phi Beta Kappa his junior year, was elected Secretary of both the Glee Club and the Concert Guild. Bob Diehl was elected President of Sigma Delta Chi, and Dave Dunlap served as President of both Sigma and the Young Republicans. In the Law School, Bill Crowell and Rich Parsons served as Historians of the Senior and Intermediate law classes respectively.

In athletics several of our members were active on varsity and freshmen teams. Mike Shank lettered in both cross-country and track, establishing a new school record for the cross-country course. Bill Durrett lettered on the rifle team, and John McGiffin won his freshman numerals in the same sport. Last year John Culley sparked the Baby Generals on the basketball court, while Allen Barnett won an individual intramural wrestling championship, and Dan Balfour played JV tennis. George Peters and Woody Wise were on the varsity wrestling team. To round out the field, Jack Cover played varsity baseball.

Socially Sig Ep experienced a most successful year. The year was highlighted by our annual Christmas party, our Chinese God party, and was climaxed by the Sweetheart Ball in the spring. Brother Dunlap, Sigma President, helped maintain a lively weekend pace throughout the year.

Green, Sussman, Schlesinger, Salomon, Dattel, Galef, Stamm, Goldstein, Pollock. Fourth Row: Rosenbloom, Bing, Garber, Portnoy, Rosenstock, Sagner, Gordon, Goozh, Alenstein, Markstein, King, Schwartz.

Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Zeta Beta Tau became a recognized fraternity at Washington and Lee in 1920. Since that time it has established for itself a prominent position in all phases of university life. Of special significance is the fact that Alpha Epsilon was named this past year as runner-up as the outstanding chapter of the national organization. In addition, Richard Aberson, immediate past president of the chapter, was selected as the outstanding college undergraduate of 1960 from the membership of all of ZBT's national chapters.

This year the House has members participating in many extracurricular activities. Three seniors, David Lefkowitz, Brian Vitsky, and Steve Danzansky, were elected to Who's Who. David was president of the Interfraternity Council, president of SWMSFC, member of Student Service Society, Dean's list student, and Freshman Camp Counselor. Brian Vitsky was a member of Phi Beta Kappa as a junior, secretary of the senior class, president of AED, chairman of the Student Library Committee, president of Phi Eta Sigma, and fraternity vice-president. Steve Danzansky was writer and director of the SWMSFC's musical comedy production for the past two years. A Dean's List student and vice-president of Fancy Dress Dances, he also appeared in several Troubadour productions. Another senior, Richard Sharlin, served as business manage of THE CALYX, member of SSS, and the Commerce Fraternity.

In the junior class, Steve Galef was vice-president of the Dance Board, secretary of SSS, member of the Assimilation Committee, and assistant editor of THE CALYX and The Ring-tum Phi. Joe Goldstein was managing editor of THE CALYX, secretary of the Library Committee, Phi Beta Kappa Sophomore Award, and a member of AED and Phi Eta Sigma. Jerome Dattel was advertising manager of The Ring-tum Phi, member of SSS, SWMSFC, and the Cold Check Committee. Herb Salomon, a Dean's List student, served on the business staffs of THE CALYX and The Ring-tum Phi, and he was also a member of the Library Committee, AED, and "13" Club.

Danny Markstein, also a Dean's List student, served as vice-president of the sophomore class, a member of SSS, SWMSFC, and manager of the Varsity Tennis Squad. He also served as advertising manager of THE CALYX.

ZBT was also well represented in both university and intramural athletics. Highlights of Alpha Epsilon's social season were the dance set parties, the "Dante's Inferno Party," pledge initiation weekend, and the Spring house party.

Mrs. Forest Fletcher again served devotedly and faithfully as ZBT's house mother.

Mock Convention Picks Kennedy

With a generous touch of realism provided by former President Harry S. Truman and Sen. Henry Jackson, the Washington and Lee 1960 Democratic Mock Convention, held May 2-3, nominated Sen. John F. Kennedy for President of the United States.

The selection of Kennedy marked the eighth time in the twelve mock conventions held on campus since 1908 that the students have chosen the candidate later selected by the party out of power in its summer convention.

The 1960 convention was ably headed by Charles McCormick, a senior law student from Halifax, Va., and a Steering Committee composed of William F. Ling, Tom Branch, Warren Goodwyn, Tom Bryant, and Peyton Winfree.

The most popular attraction of the convention was Miss Linda Meade, the lovely Miss America of 1960. The convention began with a mile-long parade through the streets of Lexington. Following a luncheon in Evans Dining Hall, President Truman delivered the keynote address to a "full house" in Doremus Gymnasium. In a solemn ceremony after his address, Mr. Truman dedicated a plaque to his vice-president, Alvin J. Barkley, who succumbed to a heart attack at the 1956 Mock Convention.

Then began the long process of nominations. Balloting started later Saturday morning with Kennedy, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, and Gov. Adlai Stevenson leading the parade of candidates. After rallies by both Johnson and Stevenson—who once received enough votes for the nomination but could not hold them until the end of the ballot—Kennedy surged ahead and was nominated in the afternoon session. Sen. Jackson received the vice-presidential nomination.

For the first time in forty-six seasons, Washington and Lee's fighting Five-Star Generals have gone through their football schedule undefeated. In four short years the W&L squad has come from the depths of football mediocrity into the select ranks of the unbeaten.

The 1960 team has shown all of the talent which makes a football team great—a fine offense, a stubborn defense, a Little All-American, and most of all, the will to work and to win. Three full teams played almost equally and rolled up a total of 196 points in nine games to the opposition's 46. Bob Funkhouser and Charley Gummey shared team scoring honors with 28 points apiece. Doug Martin, Jim Hickey, Steve Suttle and Ned Hobbs were all close to the leaders, each scoring 18 points or better. Fullback Martin led the team in total rushing with a net season's gain of 619 yards. Undisputed leader of the defense unit, which held the opposition to a total of 5.1 points per game and no team more than one touchdown, was W&L's Little All-American Captain Terry Fohs. Weighing only 145 pounds and playing defensive center, he has been described as "too small to block, too fast to fall on, impossible to hurt and a ferocious ankle-high tackler."

W&L 21; CENTRE 6

Washington and Lee's Generals opened their 1960 football season with a 21-to-6 victory over Centre College. After a sluggish first half the Generals came back strong in the third and fourth quarters to win over Centre for the second straight year. Eight minutes after the opening kick-off, fullback Doug Martin carried for seven yards, and quarterback Steve Suttle got the first W&L touchdown of the day on a sneak play. Halfback Bobby Funkhouser gained most of the yardage in the scoring drive.

In the third quarter, with W&L in command of an 8-6 lead, Suttle clicked on a 44-yard pass play to sophomore halfback Charley Gummey for the second W&L touchdown. In the last quarter Doug Martin burst through the Colonel line and scooted the remaining 46 yards for the third General score. By alternating quarterbacks Suttle, Robin Wood and Phil Sharp, the Generals drove to the Centre ten, only to stall.

W&L 23; DICKINSON 6

The Washington and Lee Blue and White increased their season's winning streak to 2-0 with their victory over the Red Devils of Dickinson. Two of the three Generals' touchdowns were made on pass plays with the balance of the 23-6 score made up of two runs and one conversion.

The first score of the game was made by the Dickinson squad led by Walt Buckley, quarterback. The General's first score was made in the second period when Steve Suttle threw a ten-yard pass to end Dan Blain and brought the score to a 6-6 tie. However, Jim Russ's placement put the Generals out front 7-6. Due to Dickinson fumbles, the Blue and White scored two more TD's in the second half. Suttle threw to end Ned Hobbs for 36 yards, and a third-period score came after Bob Funkhouser had the only pass interception of the game. W&L's third score came in the fourth quarter as quarterback Chuck Lane scored from the one-yard line, and then Joe Hess ran the two extra points.

W&L 26; RANDOLPH-MACON 3

The Washington and Lee Generals traveled to Ashland, Virginia, and gained their fourth victory of the season with a 26-3 triumph over Randolph-Macon. The Blue and White started slowly but scored three times in the second half while holding the Yellow Jackets to a mere 73 yards on the ground.

Late in the second quarter, W&L converted a recovered fumble on the 19 into a touchdown with Suttle going over from the three for the six-pointer. After holding a precarious 6-3 lead at half time, the Generals got rolling in the third quarter when Bob Funkhouser capped a sixty-yard scoring surge with a two-yard plunge. In the waning minutes of the game, Suttle threw a 39-yard scoring pass to halfback Jim Hickey after a R-M fumble. The Generals rolled up 208 yards through the muddy turf, and 38 more yards by the airways. Fohs intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble, causing the Richmond Times-Dispatch to name him "Player of the Week."

W&L 38; FRANKLIN & MARSHALL 8

The Generals played near-perfect football before a homecoming crowd of 3,500 fans in whipping Franklin and Marshall, 38-8. The unbeaten Generals came up to their potential for the first time this season in spite of a wet field. Coach Lee McLaughlin's charges rolled up 496 yards total offense while piling up 24 first downs. Meanwhile, the General defense, led by Barton Dick, Tommy Goodwin, Tom Budd, Bill Wheeler and Mal Brownlee confined F&M to only 173 yards and nine first downs. W&L took the opening kick-off and marched 79 yards with Bob Funkhouser crashing over for the score. In the second quarter, Doug Martin rushed off tackle and went 26 yards for the TD.

The Generals made it 22-0 five minutes later after driving 77 yards. Funkhouser picked up 15 yards on a run, and a 32-yard Suttle-to-Hobbs pass was climaxed by Funkhouser cracking over for the score. W&L increased its lead to 30-0 early in the third quarter when Ned Hobbs blocked an F&M punt and fell on it for a touchdown. Martin raced 85 yards for the final score, giving the 159-pound fullback 172 yards on 13 carries.

W&L 14; HAMPDEN-SYDNEY 7

W&L's Generals assured themselves of their first winning season since 1951 with a come-from-behind 14-7 victory over the fighting Tigers of Hampden-Sydney. Playing in the first half was dominated by H-S, as W&L's only drive was stalled on the Tiger six. Hampden-Sydney scored in the second period on a sneak by Shelton on a drive which had started at the Generals 37.

The Generals, moving 84 yards, scored the first time they got the ball in the third quarter when Gummey dashed 10 yards around right end for pay dirt. The try for the extra point failed, and Hampden-Sydney led 7-6. Midway the fourth quarter, the Generals struck for 80 yards and the decisive touchdown. A Martin-Suttle pass got the Generals moving for 26 yards, the final tally coming on a 29-yard strike from Martin to Hobbs who was alone in the end zone. The Blue and White tried once more when Fohs intercepted a Tiger pass and returned it 43 yards to the Hampden-Sydney six, but they were halted four plays later on the six-inch line. Gummey picked up 65 yards on 15 carries, helping the Generals lead in that department 304-196.

W&L 8; JOHNS HOPKINS 8

The Five-Star Generals remained unbeaten as they battled the Johns Hopkins Blue Jays to an 8-8 tie, before a large Parents' Day crowd, but the favor of the gods were with the Blue and White to remain in the ranks of the elite. The Generals were hard pressed in gaining a tie as the Blue Jays completely dominated the play in the second half. Their drives, led by Henry Ciccarone, were stopped many times by penalties, fumbles, and bad breaks. Early in the second quarter, the Generals began their move for their only score. The crucial play of this drive was a screen pass from Suttle to Charley Gummey for eight yards and a first down. Hickey took the ball around left end for 26 yards to the two, and then personally ran it over for the score.

The Blue Jays took the kick-off and marched promptly for the score and the tie. The second half saw Washington and Lee on the defensive, as Fohs made 23 tackles. Their first drive was halted at the Blue and White 25 by a penalty, and Doug Martin quick-kicked from the four out to the 49 yard line. The Blue Jays next marched to the two, where Suttle recovered a fumble. But they were to return, and had two touchdowns called back from the Generals' 18 yard line. The Generals made one more bid in the waning moments of the game, only for time to run out on them at the Hopkins 19.

W&L 6; CARNEGIE TECH 0

A 64-yard touchdown run by Tommy Keesee in the third quarter gave Washington and Lee a 6-0 victory over Carnegie Tech. Keesee cut across left guard, broke into the open and outraced Tech's secondary for the TD.

There were seven fumbles in the game which was played in a steady rain. Washington and Lee fumbled three times and lost the ball each time. Tech recovered only one of its four fumbles. The Generals' touchdown drive began when Keesee fell on a Tech fumble on his own 23 yard line early in the third quarter. Keesee carried the ball two times for a first down on the 36. Then Keesee broke away for his sprint. Center Courtney Mauzy, quarterback Robin Wood, ends Lanny Butler and Bill Roberts, and tackle Bob Payne played standout defensive ball. Terry Fohs recovered one fumble and intercepted a pass to shut off two of the Tartans' thrusts.

W&L 32; SEWANEE 8

With their offense and defense taking equal bows, the Five-Star Generals took complete command of Sewanee and scored a surprisingly easy 32-8 decision. W&L piled up 439 yards on the ground and 36 through the air to the Tigers' total of 220.

The first score was made by halfback Jim Hickey on a four-yard skirt of right end after the Generals had moved from the Tiger 37. Minutes later Doug Martin set up the second General score with a 43-yard dash to the Tiger 17. Charley Gummey drove over from the four to post the tally. When Dan Blain's punt rolled dead on the Sewanee one and they punted out to their own 29, the Generals' third unit scored on a two-yard plunge with ten seconds left in the half. In the third quarter Steve Suttle returned a Sewanee punt to the Tiger 19 to set up W&L's fourth score. Jim Russ went around end for the last few yards and the touchdown, making the score 28-0. With five minutes remaining in the game, the Generals scored the final touchdown of the day. Doug Martin scored this one from 18 yards out to cap a 70-yard drive.

W&L 28; WASHINGTON 0

Washington and Lee's Generals closed out their first unbeaten season in 46 years with a resounding 28-0 trouncing of Washington University in St. Louis. Led by Terry Fohs, who made 26 tackles for the tough W&L defense, and an array of offensive stars, the Generals capitalized on six fumbles by the Bears to score twice in each half.

W&L's touchdowns came on long runs and passes. They were scored on a 59-yard run by Joe Hess, a 29-yard run by Charley Gummey, a 13-yard keeper run by quarterback Robin Wood, and a 38-yard pass from Wood to halfback Wallace Tiffany. W&L's offense, which compiled 286 yards on the ground, was led by the running of Hess, Gummey and Tommy Keesee. Hess led with a total of 93 yards. Gummey added 58 and Keesee compiled 48. Coach Lee McLaughlin, assistants Buck Leslie and Boyd Williams, and trainer Norris Eastman and the football team have compiled a record of which all those who are in any way connected with the team may be exceedingly proud.

FRESHMAN TEAM

The 1960 Brigadier Generals were termed by the coaches and many observers as the best freshman team at W&L in recent years. Although their 3-3 record is not immediately impressive, the losses were to strong opponents, and by a scanty over-all total of five points.

Led by captains John McDaniel and Henry Sackett, the Baby Generals opened the season with consecutive wins over Hargrave Military, 20-0, and Woodberry Forest, 14-0. In the first game, Sackett and Stuart Yoffe scored the touchdowns while the defense, backed by Sheffey, Savage, and Jenkins, refused to yield a score. Against Woodberry McDaniel completed 11 of 13 passes. In the next game a slow first half cost the team a 7-6 defeat at the hands of Staunton. The offense began to roll again at Augusta, as the Brigadiers scored three touchdowns in the second half and held off a frustrated Augusta team, 26-13. Against Ferrum Junior College, the outweighed Baby Generals begrudged a dishearteining 22-20 defeat. Yoffe scored all three touchdowns, one on a 97-yard kickoff return. The season ended with a loss to Massanutten, 14-12.

This respectable record, coupled with the undefeated season of the varsity, is indicative of a solid future for W&L football.

The Washington and Lee Soccer team finished the 1960 season with a 5-6 won and lost record. The team was coached by Joe Lyles, in his second year at W&L. The Generals were 4-5 over the regular season, and split their two games in the Virginia Intercollegiate Soccer Tournament for second place.

Several upsets were included in the team's five victories. One of these was against North Carolina State. The Generals, playing one of their best games of the season, beat the Wolfpack 5-2. The major upset of the season, however, came against Virginia. In a contest played in Lexington, W&L shut out the Cavaliers, 4-0. The other regular season victories came against Pfeiffer College and Randolph-Macon. Failing to win on the road, the regular season losses came at the hands of Duke and Georgetown on the opponent's fields. The bootmen also lost to North Carolina and Lynchburg College on Smith Field.

For the second year in a row the Generals finished second to Lynchburg College in the Virginia State Tournament. This year, however, they tied with Virginia, both finishing with 1-1 records. The tournament was held in Lynchburg this year after its inception in Lexington last year. Four teams participated: Virginia, Lynchburg, Virginia Tech, and Washington and Lee. W&L lost in the first game to Lynchburg 2-1. Lynchburg won the game in the final minutes. In the second game against V.P.I., the situation was reversed. Jim Starkey tied the game up 1-1 in the final minutes, sending it into overtime. In this extra period, Chuck Begg gave the Generals the victory with the winning goal. In the voting for the all-opponent team following the tournament, Clark Valentiner was picked as goalie, and Steve Hawkins was picked for the center-forward position. Honorable mention went to Dave Knight, Dunlop Ecker, Bob Pagano and Chuck Begg.

This year's team was captained by Dave Knight and Frank Smith. Steve Hawkins led the team in scoring with ten goals. In addition to the members of the first team already mentioned, Bill Outman and Wick Hollingshead saw the most action. Next year's captains will be Dunlop Ecker and Harry Preston, and the team is looking forward to another fine year.

Coach Dick Miller and Captain Holt Merchant

As usual, the General Cross Country team came through with a victorious season led by Mike Shank, Mike Brumby, Stoney Duffey and Captain Holt Merchant.

According to Coach Dick Miller, the factor most contributing to this year's success was the depth of the squad. Besides the four mainstays already mentioned, Kerry Reynolds, Bob Williams, Bruce McDonald, Jay Jacot, Ed Garrretson, and Craig Distelhorst could always be depended upon to score valuable points in the tough competition.

Not only did we have a 6-2 record this season, but Coach Miller feels that the prospects look very bright for the future. Often the team has to rely on newcomers for depth and seldom finds out about them until they arrive, but since the team will lose only Captain Holt Merchant through graduation, it appears as though the remaining freshmen and sophomores, who were the chief constituents of the squad, will be a very good nucleus on which to build.

Besides forfeits from High Point and Marshall Colleges, the Generals defeated Pfeiffer (48-15), Randolph-Macon (37-24), Hampden-Sydney (45-18), and Richmond (46-19). The Generals, however, dropped two meets; one to Lynchburg (15-49) and the other to Catawba (15-42). To culminate their winning season, the team placed a commendable sixth in the state meet.

Highlighted by the tremendous upset of Virginia, the W & L cage season had to be termed a success. Even though a losing record was compiled for the season, this game more than made up for other disappointments. The young Generals managed to win 7 out of 18 games against consistently taller and more experienced opposition.

For the greater part of the season, the Generals had no man on the squad older than a junior. For the last seven games of the season, there was no man taller than 6' 4" on the squad. Coach McHenry often started a team consisting of one freshman, three sophomores, and one junior. The team was further handicapped by the loss of promising 6' 6" freshman John McDowell. Ken Kowalski, the team's third high scorer, was hampered by injuries most of the year.

The Generals got off to a bad start, losing four games in a row. These losses came at the hands of Bridgewater, Norfolk, William and Mary, Richmond, and Randolph-Macon. In the first two games, the Generals were unable to contain two of the state's leading scorers and also were unable to hit from the foul line. In the latter two games, the team continued in its inability to win on courts away from home.

The first victory of the season came against Sewanee in a game played in friendly Doremus Gymnasium. This victory avenged a bitter loss to Sewanee suffered by last year's team. Next, the cagers met Emory and Henry and won again at home. This game was featured by the shooting of Roger Fauber, Brett Thackston, and Kowalski. Fauber also rebounded outstandingly, clearing the boards 24 times. Rough action featured the play of both teams. Two more losses were suffered at Catholic University and Franklin and Marshall before the Christmas holidays.

Three home games were played between Christmas and the exam break. In the first one the Generals fell by the narrow margin of 72-69 against Chattanooga. Foul-shooting was the deciding factor in this game with Chattanooga winning out in the last few minutes. The frustration of this game provided the impetus for a streak in which W & L won six out of its next seven games. Hampden-Sydney was the first victim with the Generals winning by a 70-69 score. Next, the opening night defeat by Bridgewater was avenged as W & L won despite a fine performance by Jim Reedy, Bridgewater's candidate for state scoring honors. The final tally here had W & L on the right side of a 68-63 score.

The Generals remained hot even though they started off badly after the exam break. Hampden-Sydney lured W & L away from home, and the Tigers won 72-61. Returning home, Coach McHenry's charges resumed their winning ways to defeat Randolph-Macon and thus avenge their early season loss. Then the crucial game at Lynchburg was played in which W & L ended its road game losing streak of 15 games. The score against Lynchburg was 68-65 and provided impetus for the outstanding effort against University of Virginia in the next game. A packed Doremus Gymnasium greeted the Wahoos when they invaded Lexington. The crowd, already at a fever pitch when the game began, slowly increased the volume of noise as the game raced on. From the beginning the Generals were hot from the floor and were able to hold the taller Virginians to the short end of a 34-31 score at half-time. At the beginning of the second half the Cavaliers' height advantage appeared to begin to pay off as they took the lead. The Generals refused to fold, however, and with 7:30 left to play, took the lead for keeps on two free throws by Brett Thackston, 52-51. Amazing foul-shooting, 13-16, in the last three minutes pushed the lead out of reach of the desperate Wahoos. "Bip" Fauber played an outstanding game, hitting better than 50 per cent of his shots for 26 points and managing to get 24 rebounds away from his taller opponents. Brett Thackston and Bill Ide also hit 50 per cent from the field with Thackston getting 27 points to lead both teams. This was the upset of the year in the state and W & L's best game of the season.

After the Virginia game, the Generals lost one more game at home to Catholic U. and two more on the road to Roanoke and Emory and Henry to make the final record 7-11. Post season honors went to Bip Fauber and Brett Thackston. Fauber was picked as a Second Team man on the Small College All-State Selections. Thackston was chosen for honorable mention on the same team.

The General tankmen came through another successful season, compiling a 6-4 record. The team was coached this year by Norris Eastmen who took over the reins from Cy Twombly, who ended his long coaching career with last season's undefeated team. Co-captains Maury Purnell and Jim Parker plus Elliot Maynard and Herb Jahncke combined to form a solid nucleus for the team.

Parker was high point man for the season with 81 points. He broke the W&L pool record in the 100-yard free-style with a time of 49 seconds. He also broke the 50-yard free style record at the Wake Forest pool.

Maynard, W&L's breaststroke specialist, broke a total of four records in this event. He improved his own W&L school record set last year by 8.9 seconds with a blistering time of 2.14.1 for 200 yards. He also broke pool records in his event at Roanoke College, East Carolina State, and West Virginia. Participating for the second year in a row in the Eastern Intercollegiate championship, Maynard proved his ability to swim with the best in the country as he won 2nd and 6th places in the 100 and 200-yard breaststroke events.

Herb Jahncke followed Maynard's 77 total points with 55. Jahncke specialized in the 200-yard individual medley and the 400-yard free-style. He set records for the W&L pool in both events. In the medley, he had a time of 2.24.4 and in the 440-yard free-style he had a time of 5.19, both new records.

Maury Purnell was injured for several meets during the season. He participated mainly in two relay events, the medley and free-style relay. Both relays set records in the final meet of the season, only to have them disallowed by technicalities.

Ace breast-stroker Elliott Maynard

Other record breakers for W&L were Hunter Tracht and Mike Harris. Tracht broke the diving record with 220.6 points and Harris broke the 100-yard breaststroke record with a 1.02.2 time.

A host of sophomores and juniors will join Maynard, Jahncke, and Harris for next year's season. Juniors this year include Andy Conroy, Robert Dunlop, and Dave Benn. Sophomores are Charlie Gummey, Ted Johnson, Hunter Manson, Fred Jackson, Charles Stevenson, Steve Stull, Charlie Hart, and Dud Warwick. With only Parker, Purnell, Tracht, and Henry Gonsoulin graduating, prospects are excellent for another winning team next season.

Washington & Lee's matmen brought an end to a highly successful season by shutting out the University of Virginia, 28-0, thus pushing their overall record to 7-3. After picking up an easy five points on a forfeit in the 123-lb. class, the Generals went on to whitewash the Wahoos via decisions by Dave Montgomery, Ken Greer, Sandy Mersereau, Dick Albert, Jud Babcock, and Bob Pagano, and a pin by freshman Ed Jansen.

The Generals lost their first match to the University of North Carolina by a 16-15 score. There were three pins in the contest, two of them taken by W&L, and the remaining events were decisions, with one draw. The Blue and White won the 123, 147, 167, and 177-pound classes while the Tarheels scored in the remaining divisions. In the 123 lb. class, Dave Montgomery won over his opponent by a decision; in the 147-lb. class Sandy Mersereau pinned his opponent, Jones, in 6:55; and in the 167-lb. class, Herb Smith pinned his opponent. After this opening loss, the Generals dropped another contest on the road, bowing to the Diplomats of Franklin and Marshall 22 to 9. The following day the Generals began their winning streak, beating New York University in New York by a 21-11 score, beating Pfeiffer 17-9 in Lexington just before the Christmas vacation, and overwhelming Gallaudet and Hampden-Sydney, 25-5 and 27-3 respectively, just before the mid-year break.

Returning after exams, the grapplers demolished North Carolina State, 28-7, via three pins, two decisions, a draw, and a forfeit. A victory over Duke was followed by a loss to the University of West Virginia 28-0 and the season-ending victory over Virginia.

Captain Roger Holden and Coach John Matthews

The W&L Rifle team this season fired their way to an 8-5 over-all record. This schedule was completed despite a schedule including several outstanding teams.

The continual improvement exhibited by the Generals over the course of the season gave a good indication of things to come next year.

Led by Captain Roger Holden, the sharpshooters had an average match score of 1383.8 points per match. Dave Auld was top man on the team in regard to average. He averaged approximately 287 out of a possible 300.

W&L started off the season with a loss to VMI. One of the best teams in the Southern Conference, VMI was just too accurate for the Generals in their opening match. After this opening loss the W&L riflemen defeated Wake Forest, but they then lost matches to West Virginia and Richmond. After this, they began their move toward a winning season by fashioning wins over William and Mary twice, the VMI Air Force team, George Washington, Duquesne, the University of Pittsburgh "B" team, and the Potomac State College "B" team. Another loss to Richmond and one to Georgetown were included in the late-season rush for a winning record. West Virginia, another opponent from the Southern Conference, must be recognized as the outstanding opponent faced by the W&L squad.

Washington and Lee's golf team, under the guidance of Cy Twombly, finished another successful season with a record of four wins, two losses, and two ties. Handicapped by snow until late March, the team got off to a slow start.

Led by Jack Vardaman, who scored consistently well all season, the team opened by trouncing Roanoke College, 9-0. Following this victory came a tie with Lynchburg and a win over West Virginia. Next, the Generals traveled to William and Mary and were tied again. In a triangular meet with George Washington and V.M.I., the golfers resumed their winning ways by taking both matches. After this came a lapse in which the team lost to Hampden-Sydney and Richmond by identical scores of 5-4. The golfers ended the season successfully with a one-sided win over Roanoke.

The team, captained by Ollie Cook, can look back on a successful campaign. In two tournaments, the White Sulphur Springs Invitational and the Virginia Intercollegiate, the Generals finished second and fifth. Vardaman was the low man in both of the tournaments.

Coach Twombly looks for next season to bring much improvement because of experience and depth, with the return of two-year lettermen Jack Vardaman and Grantham Couch. Several promising freshmen include Chuck Vance, who scored a hole-in-one against Hampden-Sydney, Bob Bridewell, Bill Wyly, and Ronnie Stewart. These freshmen gained valuable experience this year and should provide the bulk of the team next year.

State Track Meet—Placed Sixth.

The Washington and Lee track team opened their season with a 74-66 victory over High Point and raced on through six more victories to an undefeated season. This spotless record was polished even more by a victory over Hampden-Sydney, the first in the school's history.

Karl "Skip" Rhonke, captain for the third straight year, led the team brilliantly. An all-round performer, Skip was a contributing factor in every meet, and capped his brilliant career with a first place in the javelin throw at the State Track Meet. For his consistent effort and ability in track, he was awarded the Forest Fletcher Memorial trophy, and was further honoring by receiving the F. F. Glasgow trophy for the school's most outstanding athlete.

However, Coach Lord asserts, "An undefeated season is always a team effort; track meets are won as a result of depth." Jim Hickey and Tab Bunkley were the dash men, while Mike Shank, a standout all year, ran the distances. In the field events, Dave Munroe, a shot-putter, Chip Day, a discus thrower, and Tom Edwards with his broad jumping, are certainly to be recognized along with the other members of the team.

As for next year, Coach Lord, in the face of losing six of his best men, is confident that "depth again will be our main asset."

This year's undefeated team deserves the highest praise for its effort in this, the oldest, and possibly the most exacting of all sports, and can proudly assume a permanent place in Washington and Lee's list of outstanding teams.

Although they continued to play a major league Lacrosse schedule, the W&L team managed to compile a 2-6-1 record. In addition to the tough schedule, the team only had one full practice outdoors before their first game, because of bad weather. Nevertheless, Coach Bob McHenry's stickmen turned in some fine performances against some of the top teams in the country.

The Generals' two victories came against North Carolina and Duke. They managed to play a good Loyola team to a 7-7 tie. One of the losses came in the last several minutes of the game against Washington College, 12-9. The other losses occurred at the hands of Hofstra, John Hopkins, Maryland, Baltimore University, and Virginia. In the Johns Hopkins game, W&L was only behind by a score of 2-1 at the end of the first quarter before they weakened against one of the better teams in the country. Lack of consistency ruined any hopes of beating Virginia, as the Blue and White played two good quarters but let down in the other two.

Once again, seniors Jay Stull and Skippy Horst led the team. Both repeated as Honorable Mention All-America award winners, despite the team's losing record. Other seniors on the squad were Moose Applefeld, Gordon Rountree, Hilly Thompson, and Harry Alley. Returning next year will be John Dinkel, Hunter Tracht, Terry Fohs, Ray Miller, Ray Gordon, Bart Mitchell, Dan Reed, and Bill Wheeler.

Moose Applefeld won the Tommy Martin Memorial Trophy at the end of the season for his fine show of spirit throughout the year. The team also chose John Dinkel and Hunter Tracht as co-captains for the next season.

Hobbs scores for the Generals

The Washington and Lee Generals began their 1960 season under Coach Joe Lyles, a former St. Louis Brown pitcher in his first season as coach. Although he did the most with what he had, the Generals had a losing season due to a slow start and lack of hitting strength. Eight lettermen returned for the 1960 season and experience seemed to be lacking, due to the fact that only one member was a junior and the rest were sophomores. In the first contest of the year Roy Carpenter pitched one of the best games of his career, only to lose to Elon in the ninth inning, 4-3. Carpenter and Williams each collected two hits apiece, but costly errors caused the Generals' downfall. The Generals ran into more trouble during the Parris Island Tournament, losing three games to Cornell and one to the Marines. Rosy Page and John Amos, two sophomore pitchers, gained much of the savy they needed during this tournament. These first few games provided valuable experience for everyone, and the team was a much improved one when it met East Carolina and the Norfolk division of William and Mary. Following the week-long spring trip, the team lost to Richmond and William and Mary on successive days. Robin Wood and Ned Hobbs collected three and four hits respectively in the two games. Russ and Carpenter showed their hitting improvement as each hit a home run against William and Mary. The winless Generals still failed to get their first victory, as they succumbed to George Washington and Hampden-Sydney whose hitting was superior to that of the Generals. Although Gilmore, Monier, and Russ improved their hitting, the W&L nine were no more successful in the second series with Richmond and W&M, than they had been before. However, on April 26, in Lynchburg, Carpenter and Daughtrey both hit home runs to lead the team to its first victory of the season. Daughtrey's hit travelled well over 450 feet, and Sharp gained his first victory of the season. In the Bridgewater game Chuck Lane, the freshman third baseman, went two for four, as did left fielder Bobby Williams. This game proved to be W&L's undoing as the outfield became riddled with errors, and the tying run was cut down at the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning. These mistakes were corrected, however, when Lynchburg college was again defeated four to two. Sharp and catcher Jim Russ, led the victors with two hits apiece. The week before the double header with West Virginia the Generals lost to Randolph-Macon and to Hampden-Sydney. With the exception of Denny McKay and Jim Russ, who collected two hits each, the remainder of the lineup went hitless.

West Virginia, W&L's last opponent of the 1960 season, came to Lexington boasting a fine record. The Generals played over their heads, and although they lost the first game 7-4, they won the second in one of the most exciting games of the season, one to nothing in the 13th inning. Phil Sharp, who won the most valuable player award, went all the way. He pitched the best game of his career, and the newly-elected captain, Ned Hobbs, executed twelve assists from his shortstop position, without making an error.

There were no seniors on the squad so the team is looking forward optimistically to the 1961 campaign, which should prove to be a highly successful one for W&L.

Captains Frank Glaser and Deco Detering and Coach Bill Washburn

W&L's 1960 tennis squad had a very successful season, winning 9 out of 12 matches. Although they lost two out of their first four matches to Colgate and George Washington, they came alive in their fifth match to defeat William and Mary, 5-4. This started a winning streak of six in a row. Even though they dropped the season finale to the Cavaliers of Virginia, Coach Washburn considered the season a complete success.

Contributing greatly to the team's success were Billy McWilliams and Clark Valentiner. Although one individual star could not be cited for the season, these two men could be continually relied upon to provide the crucial points when they had to do so. Together they won 17 out of 22 singles matches; this is surely an outstanding record.

Four seniors played their final season and will be sorely missed next year. They were co-captains Deco Detering and Frank Glaser, Rocky Gaut, and Gene O'Dell. Ace Hubbard will also return with McWilliams and Valentiner for next season.

Head Intramural Manager Joe Spivey

The intramural sports, under the direction of Joe Spivey, are operated on a campus-wide basis, consisting of teams from the fraternities, N.F.U. and the faculty.

A close race shows the top eight teams separated by a scant 89 points, with softball and table tennis left to play. Up through March 24, the Phi Psi's are leading with 902½ points, followed by PiKa with 853½ and Phi Gamm with 841 points.

PiKA took the first of their three first places in handball, defeating the SAE's in a match that was not won until the final game of a two out of three doubles match. PiKa also copped championships in tennis and football, followed by Phi Kappa Sigma and Beta Theta Pi, respectively. With a line average of well over 200 pounds, the PiKA team literally rolled over its opponents.

Basketball, which probably created more enthusiasm than any other sport, was won by the Beta's with Sigma Nu second and the SAE's and Phi Delts tied for third.

INTRAMURAL BOARD

In swimming, the efforts of Jim Wearn, Walt McManus and Mike Harris put the Phi Psi's on top. Coach Eastman, although a little disappointed in the lack of tight competition praised such standouts as Bruce Houghton and Tom Clements.

Moving on to wrestling, Coach Miller was well pleased with the ruggedness of the competition and the smooth operation of the tournament. In mentioning some of the more outstanding wrestlers, the coach praised Wayne Bradshaw and Tom Clements, both members of the champion Phi Psi team.

In track competition, won by the Delts with the Phi Delts as runnerup, Coach Lord was impressed with the general performance and especially with the efforts of Skip Essex, Ed Jansen, Ed Croft and John Pearson. Hobbie Morrison and Spence McEvoy were also cited for their pole vaulting victory. The annual turkey trot, one of the more colorful of the sports, was also won by the Delts.

The Law School claimed its only first place in bowling, finishing ahead of the Pi Phi's. Golf and volleyball were won by the Phi Delts and the Phi Gamms in that order.

Pleased with the results of the intramural tournaments, director Joe Spivey and the spectators are expecting even more excitement in the spring for the coveted intramural trophy.

Here, at Washington and Lee University, we have an ideal exemplification of THE AMERICAN WAY. Whether we be engaged in our studies, in an athletic participation, or whether it be a fraternity function, we are continuously reminded of the memories of those two matchless and dedicated Americans—George Washington and Robert E. Lee. The nobility and altruism of their deeds and actions in developing an American philosophy, of which we are privileged to partake, is indeed inspiring and titillating.

Freedom Isn't "Free"

Our graduates have an opportunity to enjoy a life of freedom, plenty and individual choice—privileges earned by our forefathers.

However, we have a responsibility to perpetuate these privileges. They are not given us "for free". We must earn them ourselves. Individual devotion to the American Way is as important today as it was in 1776.

Today's graduates must shoulder this responsibility, or there will be no freedoms to bequeath tomorrow's students.

As Goethe, the poet, said, "What you have inherited from your fathers, earn over again for yourselves or it will not be yours."
